PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 1991

Chartwell James Street is a charming retirement residence that seamlessly integrates into Bracebridge’s historic downtown, known for Victorian-era heritage homes and the natural beauty of Wilson’s Falls. Our residential area is within an easy walk of boutique shopping, unique restaurants, arts and culture venues and other downtown conveniences that make running errands or going out with family and friends easy. Nearby are also places of worship and South Muskoka Memorial Hospital.

Our attractive, vibrant retirement community combines traditional ambiance with the friendly service and design esthetic of a humble Muskoka home. We offer independent supportive living services in bright and generously sized studio and one-bedroom suites. You’ll love our gorgeous front porch and gardens, as well as our full complement of amenities, activities and flexible retirement living services.
