PART OF OUR LOCAL COMMUNITY SINCE 1998

Chartwell Kanata is an established independent supportive living residence that exemplifies country living charm in North Kanata. We boast a forested location along a quiet residential street—only steps away from Shirley’s Brook—fresh and traditional décor, and a strong local reputation.

Here, you can enjoy the simple things in life: a hot, home-cooked meal; a themed social event alongside friends; or a serene stroll around the pond and manicured gardens on our outdoor walking paths. Whether you choose one of our spacious and bright studios or instead opt for a one-bedroom suite, our independent supportive living services ensure your individual needs are taken care of and your peace of mind is ensured. Our long-standing staff are here to deliver a personalized experience that promotes your health, happiness and sense of fulfilment.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

Our solarium and central courtyard radiate a welcoming, countryside feel, as do the people who live and work in our tight-knit residence. Our skilled, caring team aims to please with services like three tempting meals a day (including our signature cookies!), housekeeping and laundry, and a variety of personal support services. We also offer a host of social, fitness and entertainment experiences like our very popular themed events and trivia nights that you can participate in at will, giving you something interesting to look forward to each day.
