PART OF OUR COMMUNITY SINCE 2013

Chartwell Ridgepointe in Southwest Kamloops offers independent living in our main retirement residence, as well as independent retirement living apartments. Here, you have the convenience of the city and wonderful views of our surrounding mountains, woodlands and hills. We boast a variety of views, but we have an even greater variety of suites to suit your needs. From intimate studios, comfortable grand penthouses, or independent apartments with full kitchens, you're sure to find the perfect place to call home.

Located right beside park lands, our neighborhood is known for its peacefulness and family-oriented atmosphere. Nearby Highway 1, Downtown Kamloops is also just a short drive away from our residence, where you can find Royal Inland Hospital, Kamloops Museum & Archives, and much more. Don't feel like driving? Not to worry, as our transportation services will take you to and from the city.

OUR UNIQUE LIFESTYLE

Home is meant to be enjoyed, whether it's relaxing in front of a sunset view from your suite's private balcony or embracing the worry-free comforts that come with senior living. Here, you can choose between studios, one- or two-bedroom suites, or independent apartments with fully equipped kitchens. To add to your flexibility of choice and your peace of mind, we also offer meal packages and housekeeping. As your needs start to evolve, we can also partner with third-party providers to ensure your care is personalized to your needs and preferences, allowing you to comfortably age in place.

You might already be familiar with Chartwell Ridgepointe, also known as the "Castle on the Hill." Our home feels warm and welcoming, thanks to our vibrant community and friendly atmosphere, fostered by regular social experiences.
